Directions...

From Wellingborough or Northampton leave the A45 at junction 10 and turn right heading towards Grendon and Castle Ashby (over the flyover). Follow the road, over the river, Dunkley's is then 300 yards on your right.

Our History...

Set in the heart of rural Northamptonshire: enjoy a refreshingly different experience at Dunkley's restaurant that was formerly a railway station before the Beeching axe fell in 1964. Enjoy a drink in a 1920's carriage, whilst studying the menu which comprises of a delightful mix of French and English cuisine.

If it's quality food, excellent service for a party or an intimate meal in impressive surroundings – the Dunkley Family are only too happy to serve.
